#FRIENDS CAN TELL

It's so romantic.

They don't want me to be late back.

They're just checking I'm safe.

They only send so many texts

because they want me to know they're thinking about me.

They miss me.

Of course I let them check my phone to see the photos and messages.

I trust them with my passwords.

We share everything.

They're just looking out for me.
